Dear Mr. Colby:

Under Public Law 242 the Secretary of the Interior and the Board on Geographic Names are conjointly responsible for assuring the continuation of BGN business. I am writing to remind you that September 30 is the expiration date of the terms of office of BGN members who have represented the Central Intelligence Agency for the past two years.

As you know, the Central Intelligence Agency is now represented by [redacted] Cartographer and [redacted] Geographer. Both [redacted] have rendered valuable service to BGN's mission of standardizing names for use in official U.S. documents.

I respectfully invite you to appoint a member, and if you desire, one or two deputy members to serve the Board for the biennium commencing October 1, 1975. It would be appreciated if you would forward a copy of your letter of appointment to Dr. Richard R. Randall, Executive Secretary, U.S. Board on Geographic Names, Defense Mapping Agency, Building 56, U.S. Naval Observatory, Washington, D.C. 20305.
